Injection Decision Tool

Do you have an EPC in Drug Administration?
- No
  - Please contact PEICP to apply for authorization to inject
- Yes
  - Does the patient have a prescription from an MD/NP?
    - Yes
      - You may administer a drug or vaccine to a patient of any age.
    - No
      - Is the vaccine for influenza?
        - Yes
          - Patient between 2 and 5 years of age:
            - You may only prescribe and administer intranasal influenza vaccine
          - Patient 5 years and older:
            - You may prescribe and administer intranasal or injectable influenza vaccine
        - No
          - Do you have an EPC in Travel Health?
            - Yes
              - Patient between 5 and 18 years of age:
                - You may prescribe and administer traveller's diarrhea and rabies (pre-exposure)
              - Patient 18 years of age and older:
                - You may prescribe and administer vaccines in Schedule A and Schedule B
            - No
              - Patient between 5 and 18 years of age:
                - You may prescribe and administer vaccines in Schedule A
              - Patient 18 years of age and older:
                - You can prescribe and administer vaccines in Schedule A